Alan Thicke's Estate: The Good, The Bad And The Ugly

Unlike many Americans, actor Alan Thicke left behind a detailed estate plan. That's the good part. The bad part: He put his two sons in charge of their stepmother's purse strings. And that's led to a whole lot of ugly since his passing in 2016.

Denied Visitation With Your Incapacitated Parent?

Increasing numbers of people spend their latter years cognitively incapacitated, their lives and decisions in the hands of spouses and guardians. What happens when an adult child is denied visitation with an ailing parent? State laws are just beginning to address this growing problem.
