

FLORIDA ESTATE PLANNING & ELDER LAW

February 2023

The Kansas City Chiefs played in the very first Super Bowl in 1967, losing to the Green Bay Packers. Now the Chiefs are back, facing the Philadelphia Eagles at the Super Bowl on February 12. The Eagles are favored. If you are a football fan, enjoy the game!

Wishing everyone, football fan or not, a very sweet Valentine's Day!

All the best,
The Attorneys & Staff of The Karp Law Firm

Is A Lady Bird Deed Right For You?

A lady bird deed does not change ownership of real property while you are still living. It designates a beneficiary who will receive the property when you die. A lady bird deed may be useful for your situation, but can also present complications. Careful consideration is always necessary before adding it to your estate planning toolbox.

Roses Are Red...So Are These Red Flags!

The internet has launched friendships, romances, even marriages. Unfortunately, it has also been an effective launchpad for predators using fake identities to lure in the unsuspecting. As Valentine's Day approaches, anyone looking online for love and friendship should be alert to these red flags.

Schedule A Speaking Engagement

Our attorneys are once again speaking to organizations in the community. Most recently Attorney Joseph Karp talked about life planning and estate planning at Temple Beth Kodesh (thank you to Gutterman Warheit's Ken Lassman for coordinating - see a photo of the event here). To request a presentation for your organization, contact Deborah Karp at (561) 472-6062. We can tailor our talk to your group's particular interests.

Questions To Ask Before Major Surgery

Modern surgical procedures can produce miracles. But as one gets up in years, weighing the risks and benefits of major surgery gets trickier. From Kaiser Health News, questions to ask your doctor before deciding on major surgery.
