November 2026

Wed., November 11 is Veterans Day, honoring those who serve or have ever served in the military. We are grateful for all they have done for us and for the generations that came before us.

Gratitude is what Thanksgiving is all about, too: The holiday falls on Thursday, November 26. Our offices will be closed that day and the following day, Friday, November 27.

Sending warm wishes for a healthy and happy Thanksgiving to our clients, friends and colleagues!

All the best,
The Attorneys & Staff of The Karp Law Firm

Reminder - Sunday, November 1

Daylight savings time ends. Set your clocks BACK one hour before you go to bed Saturday night, October 31. You'll get an extra hour of sleep!

The last day for early voting. You will encounter smaller crowds and less waiting time by voting early. Election day is Tuesday, November 3.

Social Security COLA Announced

Reflecting skyrocketing inflation, the 2027 Social Security cost of living adjustment will be 3.6%. Although among the largest increases in Social Security history, experts say it will not allow retirees to keep pace with surging costs of medical care, groceries and other expenses.

Canadian Drug Delivery Rules Postponed

If you order less expensive prescription drugs from Canada, you're getting a temporary reprieve. A new customs policy that would have delayed your order or made it undeliverable, originally set to go into effect on October 22, is now postponed to January 20, 2027. You still need to act quickly to make sure you have a supply of the medications you need.

Jonathan Karp... Still Running for Charity

Jonathan Karp completed the Chicago Marathon on October 11, raising $3,225 for the Sunrise Association. Next Up: The November 1 New York City Marathon to benefit Skyhope, which provides free air travel for those needing medical treatment or diagnosis. Thanks to everyone who contributed to these charities. We will post photos of both races in our next newsletter.

How To Choose An Agent for Your Durable Power of Attorney

Your Durable Power of Attorney gives someone the authority to manage your finances. To put it bluntly, your agent gets the keys to the castle, so you must be certain he/she is trustworthy and has your best interest at heart. Family members are the usual choice, but not every adult child or other relative is suitable. We tell you what qualities to look for when selecting an agent
